

Ms Frances Beinecke

President, Natural Resources Defense Council

Ms Frances Beinecke is president of the Natural Resources Defense Council, one of the most influential U.S.-based environmental organizations. She has worked with NRDC for over 35 years on oceans, energy, and climate change. She was appointed in 2010 by President Obama to the National Commission on the BP Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill.