

The Honorable John Kerry

Senator for Massachusetts

Mr John Kerry is the Senior United States Senator from Massachusetts and the Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. Upon graduating from Yale, Mr Kerry joined the Navy and served two tours in Vietnam, earning a Silver Star, a Bronze Star with Combat V, and three Purple Hearts for leadership, courage, and sacrifice under fire. After graduating from Boston College in Law, Mr John Kerry served as a top prosecutor in Middlesex County and as Lt. Governor before being elected to Congress in 1984. In 2004, Mr Kerry was the Democratic Nominee for President of the United States. Mr Kerry is a leader on the top domestic and foreign policy issues of the day, fighting on behalf of the Commonwealth to create jobs, combat global climate change, strengthen health care, and address the threats of Afghanistan and Pakistan. Mr Kerry serves as the Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee and is the 10th most senior member of the United States Senate. He also served as a member of the bipartisan Joint Committee on Deficit Reduction.
