

Mr Geoffrey R Pyatt

Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary for South and Central Asia, U.S. Department of State

Mr Geoffrey R Pyatt is a Senior Foreign Service officer whose 22-year State Department career has focused on Asia and Latin America. Mr Pyatt became Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of the South and Central Asia Affairs Bureau in May 2010. Prior to that, he was Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Mission to the International Atomic Energy Agency and International Organizations in Vienna.

From 2002–07, Mr Pyatt served at the U.S. Embassy in New Delhi, first as Minister Counselor for Political Affairs and beginning in June 2006 as Deputy Chief of Mission. As DCM, he served as chief operating officer for one of the United States’ largest and fastest growing foreign missions. Prior to his India assignment, he served at the American Consulate General in Hong Kong, managing the trade and export control dialogue with the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of China. Prior to joining the Foreign Service, he worked with The Inter-American Dialogue, a Washington based think tank that brings together leading citizens of the Americas. Mr Pyatt holds a Master’s degree in International Relations from Yale and BA in Political Science from the University of California, Irvine.