

Mr Michael P Schulhof

Managing Director, GTI Capital Group, LLC.

Mr Michael P Schulhof is the managing partner of GTI Capital Group, a New Yorkbased firm that specializes in private equity fund investments, as well as advisory services. Sector activities include aerospace, healthcare, energy, and media. The firm has interests in the U.S., India, and Europe with offices in New York, London, and Bangalore. Mr Schulhof serves as a director on the boards of a number of companies in which he has investments, including J2Com, an internet-based unified messaging company.

Mr Schulhof serves on the Board of The Solomon R Guggenheim Foundation, and is a member of the boards of the Brookings Institution, the Center on Addiction and Substance Abuse at Columbia University, and the American Hospital of Paris Foundation. He is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. Mr Schulhof's thorough understanding of the technology-driven media, communications, and entertainment industries is a result of his training as a scientist and his work with Sony's Akio Morita in the development and implementation of business strategy for Sony that focused on technology-based consumer products and entertainment content. From 1990 to 1995, he was President and Chief Executive Officer of Sony Music Corporation, and from 1993 to 1995, he was President and Chief Executive Officer of Sony Corporation of America.

Mr Schulhof received the prestigious Officier de la Legion D'Honneur from the French Republic in recognition of his work and efforts in promoting growth of commerce and greater understanding between the U.S. and France. Mr Schulhof received his BA from Grinnell College (1964); Master of Science from Cornell University (1967), and PhD from Brandeis University (1970). He received an Honorary Degree as Doctor of Physics from Grinnell College.

